

Allegra Spender – Independent Member for Wentworth

Allegra recognises the important role of grain producers to Australia and notes there is a great deal of common ground here, particularly given Allegra's focus on reducing red tape across all industries, undertaking tax reform and fostering a more competitive and productive economy for the benefit of consumers and suppliers.

Allegra looks forward to hopefully continuing her work and advocacy in these areas in the next term of government.